Jenny: Hey... saw your house was raided.
Jenny: We were wondering if you would be interested in doing an interview with us tomorrow
Jenny: It's Jenny from The Alyona Show me: the raid was actually a month ago, they're just publishing the search warrant for the first time me: I can come on after the 30th if you'd still be interested, but I've got to finish a book before then Jenny: Ok, I'll keep that in mind Jenny: thanks.
Jenny: We missed that your house had been raided somehow until that warrant was released me: actually another RT producer had tried to have me on after I first learned that my own apartment had been raided, I was at another residence, then the FBI came to where I was and I was detained for several hours so missed it Jenny: oh interesting Jenny: I wonder if it was Andrew Blake who contacted you me: yep
Jenny: ok cool
Jenny: well good luck with the book me: thanks
